

Guided notes for educators learning about Remind

TAKE A BREAK FROM lesson planning and learn about a free, simple tool that saves you time. Visit remind.com/resources for more tips and info!

1 What is Remind?

Remind is a _____.

2 How does Remind work?

The class code for my presenter's class is _____.

The 5-digit phone number that participants text in order to join a class is _____.

This number is DIFFERENT or THE SAME for every teacher.

3 Features

Sending messages. Remind lets you send messages to

A. Whole classes B. Individuals C. Small groups of individuals D. All of the above

When can participants reply to messages from teachers?

A. Any time B. Never C. It depends on the teacher's settings _____ is a feature that lets teachers set the best times for students and parents to message.

Scheduling. Brainstorm 2 examples of messages that can be sent in advance:

Translate. Remind can translate messages into over _____ languages.

Attachments: Brainstorm 2 types of attachments to send to students or parents:

4 How other educators use Remind

What are your favorite examples of how other educators use Remind?

What are 5 ways you could use Remind with your own class?

What other educators or groups could use Remind?
